THE ADVERTISER PROGRAMME.

It Draws a Large Crowd to Emma Square.

Every available seat was occupied at Emma Square last evening, and there were a large number of people walking around, as well as many carriages. The ADVERTISER programme proved a very attractive one. Berger and his boys gave it in a way to please anyone.

Nearly every number was heartily applauded. Professor Berger was well pleased with the crowd he drew, and has expressed himself as desirous of having more sample programmes sent him. He wants to please the public, and if the public will only let him know what pleases it, he will play it. Any programmes, or single pieces, which anyone is desirous of having played, can be left at this office, and Mr. Berger will get them. A number of programmes were handed in yesterday, too late to have any effect on last night's music, but they will be used later.

Keep your friends abroad posted on Hawaiian affairs. Send them copies of the ADVERTISER or GAZETTE.

FOR THE MIKADO.

Arrangements to Celebrate the Birthday of Japan's Ruler.

The Empe. or of Japan is entitled to a birthday party next Saturday, Nov. 3d. Perhaps he is too busily engaged in his little affair with China to observe all the particulars of a function that should mark observance of a Mikado's natal day. That the occasion will be observed on a grand scale is certain. The emperor is a popular ruler, and his subjects in and out of chrysanthemum land delight to do him honor. In Hawaii the Japanese will not forget the head of the progressive nation. On the Nanshan there arrived a large quantity of fireworks to be used Saturday evening. On several streets the resemblance to a Chinese New Year's celebration will be striking.

The Japanese diplomats, professional men and big merchants, agents and commission men will indulge in a modern observance of the event. The celebration is in charge of an arrangement committee with Rev. J. Okabe as chairman. This gentleman has secured the Beretania street armory for a hall. The Government band will furnish music, and there will be speeches and refreshments. All the prominent citizens of whatever nationality will be hidden to the feast. Orations will be delivered by Commissioner Fujii and Secretary Nariti. Mr. Fujii is said to be a finished orator.

How about it? Have you one of those patented collar Buttons, which does its own swearing, as it rolls under the dresser?

Or do you do your own swearing, as you tear your finger nails in a vain endeavor to push a refractory collar button through the button hole of a highly starched and stiffened dress shirt?

Who has not experienced the delights of such a dilemma?

All ready for the party—everything on but the cuffs, and they won't go worth a cent. You tug; pull; push and soil them but its no go. But one relief: you lie yourself to the one room in the house specially set aside for those catastrophes and that is heavily charged with sulphur—suffering man. Let me suggest a relief; get and use "the Benedict" Collar Button. They are wedge shaped, push right through a board fence, turn around because they can't help it, and hold the article firmly until you are ready to remove it.

"The Benedict" is perfect. Millions swear by them, not at them. Made in Gold, Rolled Gold and Silver. Save your temper, saves your linen. All gentlemen wear "the Benedict."

Won't you?

It's easy, cheap, time-saving, business-like,

to use a "Caligraph" type-writer.

Who will think you are wideawake and progressive if you stick to the way your grandfather wrote? Steel pens instead of quill pens; you're ahead there. Take another step. Use a Caligraph.

You can do more work on a Caligraph than with a pen. It's more comfortable to use a Caligraph than a pen.

The Caligraph

is better than any other type-writer, because it is simpler, lasts longer and does cleaner work than any other.

It's easier to learn than any other, too.

You can buy one on easy terms. It helps pay for itself while you're buying it. Let me sell you one.

A Rhyme for the Times!

And why have annexation,
Why not have something new,
With it we'll get vaxation,
And taxes extra too!

Let us a grand example be,
A Republic true and great;
Let nations in Hawaii see,
No party strife or hate!

Let freedom be our battle cry,
Freedom in word and thought,
And in Providence the world defy,
The devil set at naught!

May statesmen of the future say,
And point to his fair lay:
"In honor their foundation land,
On truth they firmly stand!"

"They rested well on WOVEN WIRE,
For be it of them said:
If freedom was their hearts desire,
All slept on BAILEY'S BED!"
